We are so glad to see you! So we will know, we would love for you to complete a communication card. You can share concerns for prayer on there as well. Place that in the bucket on the round table! The round table is where we receive financial gifts we call tithes and offerings. All gifts are tax deductible. Please use an envelope for a year-end record. There is also a tablet for your debit card. During our service we will observe the Lord's Super. This is open to all who claim Christ as their Savior and Lord. This is also the time when our kids and teens are dismissed for age appropriate learning and fun. Typically our service is an hour-30 to an hour45 minutes in length. Please take notes or not! I trust you will not be bored, Relax!

Failure

Extremes: L _____ Romans Ch. 6
I have been "saved by grace" I can live as I please.

Extremes: L _____ Romans Ch.7
I have been "saved by grace" but I must live under the law to please God.

14-20 After all, the Law itself is really concerned with the spiritual—it is I who am carnal, and have sold my soul to sin. In practice, what happens? My own behaviour baffles me. For I find myself not doing what I really want to do but doing what I really loathe. Yet surely if I do things that I really don't want to do, I am admitting that I really agree with the Law. But it cannot be said that "I" am doing them at all—it must be sin that has made its home in my nature. (And indeed, I know from experience that the carnal side of my being can scarcely be called the home of good!) I often find that I have the will to do good, but not the power. That is, I don't accomplish the good I set out to do, and the evil I don't really want to do I find I am always doing. Yet if I do things that I don't really want to do then it is not, I repeat, "I" who do them, but the sin which has made its home within me.

21-24 When I come up against the Law I want to do good, but in practice I do evil. My conscious mind wholeheartedly endorses the Law, yet I observe an entirely different principle at work in my nature. This is in continual conflict with my conscious attitude, and makes me an unwilling prisoner to the law of sin and death. In my mind I am God's willing servant, but in my own nature I am bound fast, as I say, to the law of sin and death. It is an agonising situation, and who on earth can set me free from the clutches of my sinful nature?
 Romans 7:14-24 J.B. Phillips

Extremes: L _____
I thank God there is a way out through Jesus Christ our Lord. Romans 7:25 J.B. Phillips
It is not _____ or what you _____ but _____ !

Failure is _____

31 What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

32 He did not even spare His own Son but offered Him up for us all; how will He not also with Him grant us everything?

33 Who can bring an accusation against God's elect? God is the One who justifies.

34 Who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is the One who died, but even more, has been raised; He also is at the right hand of God and intercedes for us.

35 Who can separate us from the love of Christ? Can affliction or anguish or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?

36 As it is written: Because of You we are being put to death all day long; we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered.^[o]

37 No, in all these things we are more than victorious through Him who loved us.

38 For I am persuaded that not even death or life, angels or rulers, things present or things to come, hostile powers,

39 height or depth, or any other created thing will have the power to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord! Romans 8:31-39 HCSB
